You may use the software only in the way specified in the License Agreement. The license includes the conditions for use of the program which don't presuppose exclusive rights to use and expand the software.

You may install the Software on a reasonable number of machines provided that the Named User is the only individual permitted to use the Software. All rights not specifically granted to you herein are retained by Soft Gold.

3.1.2. Multiple Licensed Copies.

If you purchase additional Named User Licenses for the Software then you are granted for each Named User License the personal, nonexclusive, nontransferable and limited license to designate one individual in your organization as the Named User and permit such Named

User to install and use the Software. In such case, the Software may be used exclusively by the specifically designated Named Users, subject to all the terms and conditions of this License. You agree that you will not designate more Named Users than the number of Named User Licenses that Soft Gold or its authorized reseller has expressly granted to you and you will not allow the Software to be used by any individuals other than the Named Users designated by you.

A designated number of Users may borrow a Floating License from the license server for a specified period of time provided that this reduces the number of licenses available to other users in the designated network until the licenses are returned.
