

License Agreement for Multi-Product Suites

Suite Licensing and Restrictions

The licensing for a suite is for one individual user to use all the products within the suite. The user may not separate the suite and/or distribute or transfer individual products within the suite to others. The license for the entire Suite and its accompanying materials may be transferred on a permanent basis provided:

- The original owner retains no copies
- The recipient agrees to the terms of the Suite and individual product license agreements
- FMS is informed of the ownership transfer in writing
