The Receiving Party shall keep and instruct its employees, contractors and agents to keep Confidential Information confidential by using at least the same care and discretion as used with the Receiving Party's own Confidential Information, but in no case less than a prudent and reasonable standard of care. The Receiving Party shall not disclose the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party to any third party, and shall only disclose it to those of its employees, contractors and agents who have a reasonable need to know under this Agreement where such employees, contractors and agents are bound by a written confidentiality agreement with the Receiving Party not materially less protective than the terms of this Agreement. The Receiving Party shall not use Confidential Information other than for purposes of performing its obligations hereunder or as authorized by the Disclosing Party. If either Party, its employees or agents breaches or threatens to breach the obligations of this Section 6, the affected Party may seek injunctive relief from a court of competent jurisdiction, in addition to its other remedies, as the inadequacy of monetary damages and irreparable harm are acknowledged. The terms of this Agreement shall constitute Confidential Information, provided that each party may disclose the terms of this Agreement (i) in confidence, to its legal counsel, accountants, banks, and current and prospective financing sources and their advisors, or in connection with an actual or proposed merger or acquisition, and (ii) in connection with the enforcement of its rights under this Agreement.

A party will not be obligated under this Section 6 with respect to information that it can document: (i) is or has become readily publicly available without restriction through no fault of such party or its personnel; (ii) is received, without restriction, from a third party lawfully in possession of such information and lawfully empowered to disclose such information; or (iii) was rightfully in such party's possession without restriction prior to its disclosure by the other party. Nothing in this Agreement will prohibit Receiving Party from disclosing Confidential Information of Disclosing Party if legally required to do so by judicial or governmental order or in a judicial or governmental proceeding ("Required Disclosure"); provided that Receiving Party shall:

(A) give Disclosing Party reasonable notice of such Required Disclosure prior to disclosure; (B) cooperate with Disclosing Party in the event that it elects to contest such disclosure or seek a protective order with respect thereto; and (C) in any event only disclose the exact Confidential Information, or portion thereof, specifically requested by the Required Disclosure.

7. Term and Termination

You can terminate this License Agreement at any time by deleting the Software (including any reproductions) from Your Endpoint Device, and ceasing all use of the Software; provided, however, SystemEXE shall not be required to refund any License Fees in the event of any early termination of this License Agreement by You.

SystemEXE at any time may notify you of its intent to terminate this License Agreement and the license granted to You herein, if You violate this License Agreement, or for any reason, in its sole discretion. 8. Government End Users

If downloaded for or on behalf of the United States of America, its agencies and/or instrumentalities ("U.S. Government"), the Software is provided with Restricted Rights. Use, duplication, or disclosure by the U.S. Government is subject to restrictions as set forth in subparagraph (c)(1)(ii) of the Rights in Technical Data and Computer Software clause at DFARS 252.227-7013 or subparagraphs (c)(1) and (2) of the Commercial Computer Software - Restricted Rights at 48 CFR 52.227-19, as applicable.

9. Governing Laws

i) United States.

10. General Terms

You may not assign or otherwise transfer this License Agreement or any right granted hereunder. A printed version of this Agreement and of any notices given in electronic form will be admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings based upon or relating to this agreement to the same extent and subject to the same conditions as other business documents and records originally generated and maintained in printed form.

This License Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between You and SystemEXE pertaining to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes any and all prior or contemporaneous written or oral agreements between the parties. No waiver of this Agreement will be binding upon either party unless made in a writing signed by both parties and no failure or delay in enforcing any right will be deemed a waiver.

SystemEXE may modify the terms and conditions of this License Agreement from time to time by providing You an updated copy of this License Agreement. You understand that SystemEXE reserves the right to make such modifications. Your continued access to or use of the Software after any such modification will constitute your consent to the modification.

You agree that any material breach of Sections 1 and 3 of this License Agreement will result in irreparable harm to SystemEXE for which damages would be an inadequate remedy and, therefore, in addition to its rights and remedies otherwise available at law, SystemEXE will be entitled to equitable relief, including both a preliminary and permanent injunction, if such a breach occurs. You waive any requirement for the posting of a bond or other security if SystemEXE seeks such an injunction.
